

Texas, Bluegrass and Cajun Fiddle

Performance

by

Catherine Boyd

Tuesday, October 7, 2014

6:30 PM

Catherine Boyd will play a solo violin tour back through time and through the South. Whether the influence is French Canadian, or a mix of Bluegrass with jazz, the fiddle players in Texas and Louisiana evolved distinctive sounds that we will explore. In addition, Bob Wills, Zydeco dancing, and Mardis Gras standards will all make an appearance!
