The following letter is from the Miata Club of Delaware who made a recent trip to Milton.

Hello Everyone,
 For what was supposed to be a rainy and dreary day, it turned out really good yesterday. (March 16) We had 20 club members with 11 Miata's attending. We had an interesting and very informative walking tour of Milton followed by lunch at the Irish Eyes restaurant, which was very appropriate for a St. Patrick's weekend.
 Thanks,
 Richard

 Miata Owners On Delmarva

This group had a great time and hopes to return later for a tour of our brewery. We hope some of our townspeople came out to view their cars.

Crowds gathered on Sunday March 10th as the town came out in support of the Irish in all of us! Many thanks to Tom Jones and Irish Eyes of Milton for a great day!

The Milton Theatre Revs up for Spring.

This active board has been hard at work to keep the Milton Theatre alive and well amidst much adversity. Please support the up and coming events planned by this group.

April 6th, 1 & 7 pm:

Come play "What's My Line" at the Milton Fire Hall, plus view a related film by Orson Wells. This promises to be fun, and an interesting presentation that comes to us from the cruise ships! Our game show host / presenter and her background is a secret (as is the title of the Orson Wells film) so we don't give away the answer to the game! Hmmm, intrigued?

April 22nd - 25th: We're partnering with the Milton Public Library in the planning of a series of events hosted by the Library as part of our week-long celebration of William Shakespeare's birthday! Details will be announced soon.

April 26th, Fri, 7 pm:

"Will Shakespeare Live!" A one-man performance by Joe Plummer, a retired professional actor and teacher well-known and respected for his portrayals of George Bernard Shaw and Charles Dickens, as well as William Shakespeare. At the Milton Fire Hall. Tickets are $18 and $20.

April 27th, Sat, 1 pm:

"All the World's a Stage" performances of scenes from Shakespeare's plays, under the direction of Possum Point Players' New Faces of Shakespeare, in the gazebo in Milton Memorial Park. This free event is the culmination of our festival. The performances will be surrounded by period appropriate entertainment.

Milton Elections

The Chamber would like to express its appreciation to outgoing Mayor, Cliff Newlands, outgoing Vice-Mayor Leah Betts and Councilmember Norman Lester for their dedicated service to the community.

We welcome newcomers John Collier and Michael Cote and Mayor Marion Jones as they begin their terms in office and wish them well in this endeavor.

In front of Irish Eyes in anticipation...
